Briefly

Graniteware will be topic

A meeting of the Old Six Mile Historical Society will be held at 7 p.m. Monday at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road.

The speaker will be Georgia Engleke, curator of the Old Six Mile Historical Museum. Her topic will be "The story of Graniteware in Granite City."

There will be a "white elephant" sale and refreshments. Visitors are welcome.

Fire displays

An open house will be held from noon to 4 p.m. today by the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department, 4113 Pontoon Road, Pontoon Beach.

Displays and demonstrations are planned, along with prizes, balloons, cake and cookies. Smokey Bear will visit, and there will be free blood pressure screening and information on fire prevention.

Polka dance

A monthly polka dance will be held from 4 to 8 p.m. today at the Croatian Home, 1000 Madison Ave. Sponsored by the Happy Stripes.

Music will be provided by the Alley Cats with Terry Dutko. Admission will be $4 and food and refreshments will be available.

'Commie' fights for workers

By Mike Myers
Staff writer

It's hard to imagine Ellen Haywood — wearing the Che Guevara T-shirt — standing up at a Steelworkers union hall and saying she believes Marx and Engels' "Communist Manifesto" is more pertinent today than it was when it was written in 1848.

"Oh, but I do," she said. "And, while they may not agree with me, they listen. I'm very active in my union (United Steelworkers of America Local 16). While they may call me 'the commie,' they respect my views and they respect my reputation as a fighter."

Haywood, a 36-year-old steelworker from Madison, is the Socialist Workers Party candidate for the 12th U.S. Congressional District, the seat now held by Rep. Jerry Costello, D-Belleville.

She has just returned from a two-week leave of absence from her job at Granite City Steel, devoting her time off to take her campaign to the people.

Does Haywood really believe she has any realistic chance of victory?

"I guess that depends on what you consider a victory," she said. "The goal of the Socialist Workers is to instill confidence in working-class people by putting up candidates who are part of the working class."

"In the end, we, the working class, must rely on ourselves to fight for our rights. We can't rely on politicians to do anything for us."

Haywood said her fellow workers have come to realize that real socialism is "not the bureaucratic oppression" practiced by the former Soviet Union, and that her brand of socialism — the Socialist Workers brand — is not the "intellectual exercise of people who pull out socialism on Sunday and then on Monday go back to selling their stocks and bonds."

When the "Manifesto" was written, Haywood said, workers were under the control of a minority — the capitalist owners — but most were somewhat self-reliant.

With a backyard garden and perhaps some chickens and a cow, even the urban workers could stave off starvation.

Cost overrun on Eticam study

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

A St. Louis-based engineering firm is asking Granite City to pay for cost overruns associated with an environmental and safety assessment of the proposed Eticam Granite City wastewater treatment facility.

Sverdrup Corporation is asking the City Council to release $21,500 to reimburse the engineering firm for work performed earlier this year on the Eticam study.

The City Council authorized expenditure of up to $17,000 for the project.

Eticam has applied for permits to operate a wastewater treatment and metals recycling facility on Highway 3, slightly more than one-half-mile away from Prather, Elementary School. School officials and other residents expressed concern regarding the safety of the proposed facility, prompting the City Council to commission the study.

The 26.5 percent cost overrun is attributed to more work being performed than Sverdrup anticipated when it bid on the project, according to a Sept. 17 letter from Sverdrup project coordinator Roger Jungelaus to Mayor Von Doerksen.

for Roger Jungelaus to Mayor Von Doerksen.

The firm put in 230 work hours on the study, 40 more than anticipated, according to the letter.

Additional work performed included scenario modeling, mechanical and systems assessment, a risk discussion included in the report, copying costs and hand-delivering the report to the Illinois Power Company's new customer service office, the letter states.

The study, completed July 20, found that the Eticam facility could be safe if properly managed, but also cited a number of alleged violations at two other Eticam facilities, one in Nevada and one in New Jersey.

The City Council expected to rule on the matter Tuesday night.

Other items on the City Council agenda include an ordinance creating angle parking at 22nd and Benton streets, in front of Illinois Power Company's new customer service office; a resolution establishing an infection control policy for the fire department as mandated by the state; and an ordinance authorizing the mayor to execute a lease of downtown property with Jerry's Cafeteria and Catering for parking.

Bakery is robbed

A robber, armed with what is believed to have been a gun, made off with the entire receipts of Granite City Bakery Wednesday night.

Donna Smith, 49, an employee of Dolly Madison Bakery, 1509 Madison Ave., told police a man she believes held a gun under his shirt robbed her of the entire contents of the store's cash register at about 6:45 p.m. Sept. 30.

The exact amount of cash and food stamps taken is unknown. The man was about 40 years old, 5-feet-10-inches tall, with a medium build and a "salt and pepper" beard. His clothing included a gray long-sleeve sweat shirt and a ball cap at the time of the robbery.

Smith told police the man entered the store and bought a loaf of bread. When she asked if he needed anything else, the man pointed to the cash drawer and she had needed everything in it.

"I'm dead serious, lady," the robber told Smith. She said he had his hand underneath his shirt, and an unknown object believed to be a gun was protruding from the shirt, pointed directly at her.

Smith opened the cash drawer, removed all cash and food stamps and gave it to the man. He then ordered her to get on the floor until he left.

Capt. James Lengyel of the Police Department said there are no suspects in the case.

Education key to fire safety

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

Somewhere in the nation, a residential fire occurs every 66 seconds. Every year, more than 5,000 people die in fires across the country, hundreds of them in Illinois.

"Education is the key to prevention," Granite City Fire Chief Jerry Wallace said.

"Fire departments across the nation are gearing up for Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 4-10. Local departments are holding open houses and demonstrations in the hope of increasing public awareness about fire safety."

Although the United States is a world leader in technology, it has the highest fire death rate in the world, Wallace said.

He said that children playing with matches is one of the fastest growing causes of fire deaths, and that statistics show younger children and older adults are particularly susceptible to fire injuries and death.

"United States Fire Administration data indicate that children 4-4 years old are twice as likely to die in a fire than the rest of the population," Wallace said.

"For those children, playing with matches and lighters is the leading cause of fire deaths and injuries, accounting for 34 percent of their fire deaths and 35 percent of their injuries."

"Fire caused by smoking is the second leading

(See SAFETY, Page 2A)

Departments hold open houses today

In conjunction with Fire Prevention Week, the Granite City Fire Department, Mitchell Volunteer Fire Department and Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department have all scheduled open houses today.

Mitchell Fire Station No. 2, at 5119 Maryville Road, will be open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. A life trailer will be on display from 8 a.m. to noon and the A.R.C.H. helicopter from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. An auto rescue demonstration is planned, and other demonstrations will be held throughout the day until 4 p.m. Attendance prizes will be awarded.

A life safety trailer will also be exhibited at the Long Lake station, 4113 Pontoon Road, from noon to 4 p.m. Smokey Bear will make an appearance and demonstrations, free blood pressure screening, door prizes and refreshments will be featured.

Pluggie the fire robot will be on hand at the main Granite City fire station, 2300 Madison Ave., from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. today. Tours and equipment demonstrations can be scheduled Monday through Friday from 1 to 5 p.m. or from 7 to 9 p.m. by calling Lynda at 877-6114.

Perot backers ready Door-to-door campaign planned

H. Ross Perot's revived presidential campaign has supporters raring to go and make much difference.

Perot's announcement Thursday that he was reentering the presidential contest met with a short burst of applause from Madison County Campaign Advisory Board member Fran Turner as she watched the speech on television in her living room.

"Now we can get out, start going door-to-door and making telephone calls," she said.

The Madison County Perot campaign workers have continued to meet during their candidate's 11-week absence from the campaign and have everything in place for the next 31 days.

The organization has about 50 members.

"We'll meet Thursday and then start handing out literature," Altan area coordinator Fran Turner said.

With only a month left in the race, Perot will be able to run a short, intense campaign, missing much of the political banter that has plagued the other candidates for the past 2 1/2 months, local workers for the major party candidates said.

A 31-day campaign is something politicians would find attractive, said Doug Mueller, Madison County coordinator for the Bush campaign.

"I'm fully confident he announced at this time so he would be able to make the most impact," Mueller said. "Before, he would have lost almost all support, but now he has the chance to win a couple of states. With a much shorter campaign, you spend a lot less money."

Jack Reid, Downstate field coordinator for Democratic candidate Bill Clinton, said Perot had not had to withstand the scrutiny the other two have.

"He is coming in during the last month of the race without the voters really having the opportunity to get any information about his platform," Reid said.

Turner agreed Perot had avoided getting involved in a dirty campaign.

"I felt when he dropped out something was fishy," he said. "I told people I had a feeling that he was coming back. I just think he didn't want to be involved in the mud-slinging and would come back in at the last minute."

As Perot supporters gear up for a campaign blitz, members of the Bush campaign and Clinton-Care camps say it will mean nothing to them.

"I'm going forward with the same campaign we were running, detailing our ideas to the public," Reid said.

Mueller agreed Perot's bid will not

Water rate hearing Monday

Customers of Illinois American Water Company will have two opportunities to comment on the proposed rate hike which could increase residential water bills an average of $3 a month.

The Illinois Commerce Commission will hold a public forum at 7 p.m. Monday at the Granite City Township Hall, 2000 Delmar Ave. A second forum will take place Oct. 26 in Belleville.

Remember when?

The date was Oct. 4, 1986, and high school football history was made in Granite City.

The Granite City Warriors put it all together and ended the East St. Louis Flyers' 44-game winning streak on an afternoon no one at Memorial Stadium will ever forget. The 17-14 Warrior win made news across the nation and led to Granite City's first Southwest Conference title in 40 years.

Wednesday, in the first installment of the Journal's Remember When... series, we'll look back at the events of that unforgettable overcast afternoon.

Vote for bikes on trail ends in tie

By Brian Henry
Correspondent

It's still permissible to ride a bicycle on the new fitness trail at Wilson Park, but a tie vote at Wednesday's Granite City Park District board meeting.

Commissioner George Sykes offered a proposal to make bicycle traffic illegal on the trail except when under adult supervision.

Sykes and Ron Moti voted in favor of the new rule, but were opposed by Barry Loman and Nancy Sanders-Miles. Commissioner Ron Parente was absent. All tie votes lose, and so it was with the newest proposal curbing wheeled traffic on the trail.

"I want to ban all bikes, skateboards, rollerblades from the walking/jogging trail," Sykes said. "As long as adults and little bikes are supervised by parents, that's not a problem. I just don't want people damaging the trail."

It was pointed out that the security staff necessary for enforcing the rule would not be available. But Sykes said that people using the trail would monitor the situation.

"We can't police it, but we could at least put up a sign," Sykes said. "The people will police it." "I don't know how to keep them off anyway. I may be hard to enforce, but we need some type of cause among children 44 percent of fire deaths, and arson 13 percent, is a close third.

Last year in Illinois, more than 800 fires involving children were reported. Fifteen children were killed and 165 were injured in those fires.

Last year throughout the state, 88 people age 65 and older suffered fire-related deaths.

All of those figures indicate an increase in the number of fires, deaths and injuries over 1990, Wallace said.

USFA data indicate 80 percent of all fire deaths occur in the home. Further, 90 percent of child fire deaths occur in homes without working smoke detectors.

Wallace said, "Correctly installing and maintaining a working smoke detector doubles your chance of surviving a fire."

"Smoke detector maintenance is one of the simplest, most effective ways to reduce the needless deaths and injuries caused each year by home fires."

State fire deaths rose in 1991

Illinois fire deaths were up slightly in 1991 from the previous year, according to the current 1991 Fall Fires Report from the Office of the Illinois State Fire Marshal.

In 1991, 390 people were killed in fires in Illinois compared to 373 in 1990.

OSFM estimates that 70 percent of those 1991 fire deaths were in residential structures.

"We need to do more to reduce fire deaths and injuries. We must pay special attention to smoke detectors in the home as a way to combat the number of fire deaths," said Illinois State Fire Marshal Thomas L. Armistead.

"According to the National Fire Incident Reporting System

He said smoke detectors should be placed near sleeping areas on each level of the home, away from drafts created by air ducts or fans, and batteries should be changed twice a year.

Often, detectors are placed too near a stove or shower, Wallace said. When the device goes off, the owner removes the battery to temporarily dismantle it, but then often fails to replace the battery.

Planned escape routes from the home for senior citizens should take into consideration the effects of age on hearing, vision and mobility, Wallace said.

Cooking fires accounted for 2,041 of all the fires reported in the state in 1991, resulting in 10 fire deaths and about $7 million in property damage, according to statistics from the National Fire Incident Reporting System.

Safety tips include keeping pot-holders and towels away from stoves, burners and turning pot handles inward so they are less likely to be knocked over.

Cooking food should never be left unattended, and loose-fitting clothing and dangling sleeves should be avoided when preparing meals.

Water should never be applied to a grease fire. In those instances, burners should be turned off and flames should be smothered with them.

Last year in Illinois, careless smoking accounted for 2,600 fires, 45 deaths, 408 injuries and $18 million in property damage.

Common-sense practices, such as refraining from smoking in bed, using large and deep ashtrays, and checking under and around cushions and chairs for smoldering cigarettes, are recommended.

Home-appliance and wiring problems are responsible for 93,500 fires, 550 deaths and nearly $760 million in property damage throughout the country in a typical year.

Tips include watching for signs of overloaded wiring — frequent blown fuse boxes or tripped circuit breakers, slow-heating appliances, frequent dimming of lights and shrinking television pictures — unplugging appliances after each use, replacing broken plugs or frayed and worn cords, and plugging in only one appliance per outlet.

In 1991, slightly more than 30 percent of them were in fires originating in assembly or lounge areas in the home such as living rooms or family rooms.

Twenty percent of the deaths were from fires that started in a sleeping area while 16.3 percent were from fires that originated in the kitchen.

"Fires can start anywhere at any time, so people must install and maintain smoke detectors in their homes," Armistead said.

NFPA standards call for smoke detectors outside of every sleeping area and on every level in a home.

All fire safety experts advocate testing smoke detectors regularly and replacing detector batteries at least yearly.

Motorcyclist, driver injured

Two Granite City men were seriously injured Thursday as a result of two separate accidents.

Off-duty Granite City firefighter Greg Hoesse, 30, of the 2000 block of Woodlawn Avenue, seriously injured a leg and foot, and was severely bleeding when he was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center at about 8:35 p.m. Thursday after his motorcycle struck a car parked in the 2800 block of Washington Avenue.

Hoesse, who was ticketed for driving under the influence of alcohol, improper lane usage and operating an uninsured vehicle, was hospitalized and listed in stable condition Friday morning.

Witnesses told police Hoesse was speeding north on Washington Avenue when his Harley-Davidson veered left and struck a gray 1987 Chevrolet Celebrity parked in front of 2811 Washington Ave., according to a police report.

Hoesse landed in the middle of the street about 35 feet away. Paramedics put a bandage and splint on Hoesse's left leg, treated other injuries and took him to the hospital. The motorcycle came to rest in a yard at 2820 Washington Ave.

Hoesse told police he had been drinking at a nearby tavern just prior to the collision, the report states.

Earlier in the day Thursday, a 30-year-old Granite City man was seriously injured when he became dizzy and drove his car into four parked vehicles on a bank parking lot.

Charles G. Douglas, of the 2500 block of Parkway Drive, was listed in stable condition Friday at SEMC.

Douglas was injured when he lost control of his car and struck four other vehicles on the parking lot at Magna Bank, 2400 Pontiac Road, at 4:42 p.m. Thursday, according to a police report.

Damaged were a white 1986 Chevrolet Astro van owned by Coordinated Utility Services, 1254 Niedringhaus Ave.; a blue 1985 Dodge Caravan owned by Michael and Pam Bettorf of the 1500 block of Johnson Road; and a silver 1986 Pontiac 6000 and a black 1988 Chevrolet Nova, both owned by Magna Bank.

Douglas, a diabetic, apparently had an adverse reaction to insulin, the report states.

Driver stops policeman, is arrested

When driving a stolen car, never ask a policeman for directions.

Sebastian D. Robinson, 31, of the 1000 block of North 15th Street in East St. Louis, was arrested by Granite City police at 4:06 a.m. Thursday after doing just that.

No charges were filed against Robinson, but he learned a valuable lesson.

Robinson spent about nine hours in jail Thursday, when he was apparently caught in the middle of a dispute between a disgruntled Springfield woman and her boyfriend, a friend of Robinson's.

According to a police report, Robinson waved down an officer on the parking lot at National Food store, 3000 Madison Ave., at about 4 a.m. Oct. 1 to ask directions to Highway 111.

But a computer check of the license on the gray 1985 Oldsmobile Firenza that Robinson was driving revealed the car had been reported stolen from Charletta A. Medley of Springfield.

Robinson was soon apprehended near the intersection of Johnson Road and Del Rio Avenue.

An investigation revealed that Robinson had no idea the car had been reported stolen.

Det. Jeff Connor of the Granite City Police Department said Medley reported the auto as stolen after her boyfriend, Derek, and Robinson took it for a ride.

Medley had a baby the previous Sunday night, Connor said. After the baby was born, Derek and Robinson, both of whom had been living at the Medley home for the last few months, left for East St. Louis.

Medley, in anger, reported the car as stolen, Connor said.

"(Robinson) didn't have any idea the car was stolen. He saw Derek driving it all the time," Connor said.

"He had a pretty good defense in that he talked to a police officer while he was driving it. He just got lost and asked for directions."

Robinson was released from custody at about 2 p.m.

Connor said the stolen auto report should probably never have been taken in Springfield in the first place.

"Probably a rookie mistake," he said.

Connor said the baby is doing fine.

Grant to train officers to prevent elderly abuse

An effort will begin next year to reduce abuse of the elderly in the Metro East area.

The Southern Illinois Law Enforcement Commission has received a $20,000 state grant to train law officers to spot and prevent abuse.

Officials estimate abuse occurs to more than a million elderly each year.

"It's a crime that is underreported and underrecognized. In many instances, the elderly don't want to report it because it is coming from their caretaker," said J. W. "Skip" Bennett, director of the commission.

The commission, which offers career development training for law officers, likely will use the money to hire experts from places such as the Family Service and Visiting Nurse Association of Alton. Such workers could go to police departments to train officers on the subject of elderly abuse.

The commission also may hold a conference on elderly abuse.

Bennett said.

"Specific activities involving the grant have not been developed, he said. The commission has until June 30, 1993, to outline exactly where money will go.

Smoke detectors can save lives

The United States Fire Administration reports that 80 percent of all fire deaths in this country occur in the home.

USFA, the National Fire Protection Association and the Office of the Illinois State Fire Marshal all agree that smoke detectors can help reduce those fire deaths.

Smoke detectors save lives by providing an early warning sign of fire, giving people extra time to escape safely.

According to NFPA, however, about one-third of those homes with smoke detectors have ones that are non-operational.

"Smoke detectors are key to surviving a fire. We must make sure all homes have operating detectors," said Illinois State Fire Marshal Thomas L. Armistead.

stead, Illinois law requires smoke detectors in all homes.

Ninety percent of child fire deaths occur in homes without working smoke detectors.

Most of those deaths are not from heat or flames but from inhaling smoke and toxic fumes. The poisonous gases emitted by a fire actually put people into a deeper sleep and many succumb before they are even becoming aware of the fire.

"That's why smoke detectors are so very important," said Armistead.

OSFM advocates the following guidelines:

- Smoke detectors should be installed on each level of a home and outside every sleeping area.
- Test smoke detectors regularly and change their batteries.

Ten from area face felony warrants

Ten area residents were named in felony warrants issued by Madison County State's Attorney William Hain in Edwardsville during the week of Sept. 28-Oct. 2.

David E. Withrow, 19, of the 880 block of Cypress in O'Fallon, was charged with residential burglary. Madison County Sheriff's Department officials allege that Withrow burglarized a home in the 3300 block of Country Lane in Granite City on Aug. 24. Bond was set at $10,000.

Leonard T. Adams, 24, of the 2300 block of West 24th St. was charged with residential burglary. Sheriff's Department officials allege that Adams burglarized a home in the 2600 block of Mockingbird Lane on Aug. 9. Bond was set at $10,000.

Jamie D. Riggs, 18, of Fairway Estates, Arlington Heights, was charged with burglary. Sheriff's Department officials allege that Riggs burglarized Dillard's Landscaping on Sand Road in a June 26 incident.

Brunna Hicks, 21, of the 2440 block of Logan Avenue, and James W. Modlin, 22, of the 4300 block of Rode Avenue, were charged with forgery. Hicks was charged with one count and Modlin was charged with three counts.

Granite City police allege that the two wrote checks against a Dover, Tenn. couple's account on Sept. 8 and 9. Bond was set at $15,000 for Hicks and $30,000 for Modlin.

Courtney C. Maple, 27, of the 1909 block of Second Street, Madison, was charged with theft of under $300 value, second subsequent offense.

Madison police allege that Maple took a men's 10-speed bicycle in a Sept. 30 incident. According to the warrant, Maple was convicted on a burglary charge in Madison County on March 16.

Darrell Ovender, 39, and Antonia Ovender, 21, both of the 5300 block of Maryville Road, were each charged with unlawful possession of a controlled substance.

Robert C. Gilbert, 39, of the 3200 block of Carlson Avenue, was charged with retail theft of under $150 value, second subsequent offense.

Kimberly L. Carlisle, 21, of the 3100 block of Chain of Chain Road, Mitchell, was charged with residential burglary.

"Smoke detectors can help save the lives of our citizens. We need to make sure everyone is installing and maintaining smoke detectors," said Armistead. "Test your detector. It's sound advice."

Madison group begins drive to obtain drug-sniffing dog

By Mike Myers
Staff writer

The Madison Police Department is hoping citizen frustration will lead to a gift of a $6,500 dog.

A group of Madison residents says it is fed up with what the residents perceive as a growing problem with illegal drug sales and use in the city. They have banded together to form the Madison Community Action Group.

As its first project, the group has begun a fund drive to raise money to buy the Madison Police Department a dog trained to sniff out drugs.

In addition to soliciting local organizations and businesses for donations, the community action group is holding a fund project with a trip to Las Vegas as first prize.

Persons interested in joining the group may contact Dan Poston, 1681 Third St., 452-2336.

"We're working hard to keep (illegal drugs) out of our community," Poston said at a Madison City Council meeting Tuesday.

"We want to work with the city and police department in any way we can," Poston said. "Charlie Bridick believes a drug dog, ideally two drug dogs, would be a real asset to his department."

Mayor John Bellcock said he agreed with Poston and the group and said he was approaching local industries, telling them about this wonderful new group and asking for support.

Bridick said the dog would be obtained through the Illinois State Police. He said the dogs are imported German shepherds from a stock bred especially for law enforcement.

He said the dogs are purchased for about $4,000 from an Indiana kennel and have already been trained in obedience and some basic skills.

The dog and an officer would then go for nine weeks of training at the Illinois State Police Academy, Bridick said, at a cost of about $2,500.

Other costs would be for a pen, which Bridick estimated would cost between $200 and $300.

Alderman John Hamm offered to donate the materials and labor to pour concrete for the dog pen.

He said that one of the big advantages of having a drug dog is that the dog can get a "hit" sniffing at the exterior of a car or truck and that "hit" is sufficient cause to justify a complete search of the vehicle.

"Then the dog can find even the smallest amount of drugs. One little piece of crack (cocaine)—is all it takes," Bridick said.

"And the dog can find it almost anywhere, even places a police officer can't get to."

The dog would allow the city to make full use of forfeiture laws, Bridick said, because the city is allowed to file for forfeiture of any car, truck, or other vehicle where illegal drugs are found.

Bridick said his department turns the forfeited vehicles over to the state police, who then sell them at auction. The city gets 60 percent of the buying price.

The chief said the department recently got $1,600 from a forfeited car and has a four-wheel-drive truck waiting to be sold.

In addition to vehicles, Bridick said, a person who is arrested with drugs also forfeits all the money she or he has on him.

He said his department also gets 60 percent of that money.

All money from forfeitures must be used to further the fight against illegal drugs, Bridick said.

He said he hopes the increased amount, as the result of having a drug dog, would enable his department to purchase a second dog in the future.

Big Braun lead narrows slightly

(Copley News Service)

Despite a recent poll that shows Democratic Senate nominee Carol Mosely Braun trouncing Rich Williamson, the GOP candidate's campaign manager says they plan no changes in strategy.

"None," is Tim Meyer's answer to what changes may take place in the Williamson campaign. "We just keep taking the issues to the voters because, as long as this race is on issues, we win."

"If it's on personality and 'photo opportunities' (colorful events staged for television), we lose. 'We feel very good about it. If you really look at it, it shows, the race is narrowing.'"

The poll done for the Chicago Tribune Aug. 22-24 shows Braun leading her Republican rival 56 percent to 21 percent among voters likely to cast ballots Nov. 3, and 55 percent to 32 percent among voters who said they knew of both candidates.

The only possible good news for Williamson is that he fares better than he did when a Copley News Service-commissioned poll between July 1 and July 5 showed Braun clobbering him 55 to 20 percent.

But the Tribune's poll shows Braun not only ahead 72 to 18 percent in Democratic Chicago but also leading by wide margins on Republican turf — 54 to 30 percent in suburban Cook County and 46 to 29 percent in five surrounding "collar counties."

In the remaining 96 downstate counties, where Braun was expected to have difficulty finding acceptance as a liberal, black Chicagoan, she led Williamson 52 to 21 percent.

Meyer said Braun's lead is due to her near-universal name identification as a result of her upset defeat of Sen. Alan Dixon in the March 17 primary election, a victory that catapulted her to national celebrity as having a good chance to become the first black woman elected to the U.S. Senate.

The Tribune poll showed Braun is known by nine out of 10 people surveyed and Williamson was known to about half the survey group.

Meyer claimed a poll done for the candidate on Aug. 25-26 showed Williamson and Braun in a virtual tie among likely voters who have heard about both candidates.

If that's so, somebody's poll numbers are way off.

Jack Van Der Slis said he believes some of her support is not very deep, and that many voters will not tune in to the race until later.

But he added that Williamson has not done a good job of "cultivating the media," coming up with meaningful things to say in given markets.

He said Williamson also should tie himself closer to President Bush.

DCFS layoffs delayed, reviewed

SPRINGFIELD — A scheduled layoff of state Department of Children and Family Service employees has been delayed.

The 363 agency employees who were given layoff notices have now been told to continue to report to work until otherwise notified, said DCFS spokesman Ed McManus.

He said the delay is because the Department of Central Management Services has not yet completed its review of the layoff plan. McManus estimated the delay may be no longer than two weeks for Downstate staffers.

The cuts were scheduled for Thursday.

Among those given a temporary reprieve is Mary Lynn, the longtime supervisor of the Madison County child protective office of DCFS in the River.

The dozen staffers at the office and community groups Lynn has worked with over the years have protested her scheduled layoff and contacted lawmakers and the governor.

However, there has been no change in the plan to eliminate Lynn's position, McManus said.

Child abuse and neglect investigators said they have relied on Lynn's experience in making difficult decisions over the years.

Ward River DCFS staffers also protested the layoff of Lynn's immediate supervisor, William Wasko of the agency's East St. Louis regional office. Wasko is also getting at least a temporary reprieve.

The state agency contends it has to lay off more than 10 percent of its employees because the Legislature failed to provide enough funds by cutting $20 million from its budget request.

The layoffs involve 170 supervisors or about one-third of the total management of DCFS, McManus said.

Even though the agency's overall budget was increased from about $640 million in the fiscal year that ended June 30 to about $690 million for the current year, the increases were in grants for foster care providers and for some new programs to comply with a federal court decree, McManus said.

Smoking area being discussed

Taking a drug may no longer mean taking a walk for county employees.

Representatives of AFSCME Local 799 and Madison County officials met last week to discuss the possibility of opening a section of the new Administration Building to smokers.

The issue threatens to become a hot potato for County Board members if an agreement to allow smoking is reached. The board would have to approve any tentative agreement reached with the union.

"Most of the (board members) I think are pretty adamant about people not smoking in the building," said Godfrey Republican Bill Aery.

Under regulations adopted last year by the County Board, smoking is not allowed anywhere in the building. Employees must go outside to smoke, and this has led to complaints from both employees and the public, a union official said.

"We're getting complaints both ways. The (union) membership doesn't like it because it's starting to get cool out and there is nowhere to go when it rains."

"And then some of the board members said they've been hearing from people driving by who see all these (employees) congregating outside and they want to know do we ever do any work," said Local 799 President Jim Goodall.

No agreement was reached in last week's talks. County Administrator Jim Monday is expected to bring up the subject at a meeting of the County Board's Buildings Committee this week, and another session with the union also is scheduled.

American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Local 799 represents about 400 workers in most county government offices.

Goodall said the County Board may have jumped the gun in setting a smoking policy without consulting the workers.

County employees hoping to get raises

About 400 Madison County governmental employees are looking for their piece of the pie.

With contract negotiations getting under way last week, representatives of Local 799, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, asked for raises.

The request follows close on the heels of a County Board vote in September to award raises ranging from 1 percent to 12 percent to 17 county department heads, the three-member Board of Review and more than 100 non-union county workers.

Local 799 President Jim Goodall said the union seeks pay increases for all 400 workers represented by the local but he would not say how much.

Local 799 represents workers in almost every office of county government. The union has four contracts with the county to cover those employees.

Contract talks for workers in the Circuit Clerk's Office were scheduled to begin Sept. 30, Goodall said.

Negotiations for workers in the Treasurer's Office, court services and remaining offices are expected to begin once the circuit clerk and union bargainers have reached a tentative agreement.

Goodall declined to say what other issues may be on the table this fall. The existing contracts expire Nov. 30. The new fiscal year begins Dec. 1.

In a related note, the Finance Committee is starting discussions on the size of a fiscal 1993 budget amid predictions from some County Board members that the county may face lean financial times in the next three or four years.

Movie maker looking for Tina Turner look-alike

Touchstone Pictures and Reuben Cannon and Associates will hold an open casting from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. today (Sunday) for an actress to play Tina Turner in a new biographical film.

The casting will be held at the Holiday Inn Clayton Plaza, 772 Bonhomie Ave., Clayton, Mo. Interested candidates are encouraged to call 1-800-568-3535 for information on how to submit a tape and detailed audition.

The part calls for an actress in her mid-to-late 20s to play the age range of 17-42. The casting date should have a strong focal resemblance to Turner and should be available for rehearsals all the early October. Acting experience is preferred, but not required.

The movie, "What's Love Got to Do With It," is a biographical film based on the book "I, Tina," and follows Turner's journey from a small country farm through the torment of an abusive relationship to realizing her true self and fortune by becoming the Queen of Rock and Roll.

In the position of Tina Turner, she will be excited and hopeful that she will discover a brand new talent that also believes dreams come true," said Reuben Cannon, casting executive.

Producer Doug Chapin, noting that Turner comes from the small town of Nutbush, Tenn., said that he is "searching up the search to entire nation. 'We are very optimistic about finding somebody who is just right for the role.'"

The film, produced by Chapin and Barry Krust and directed by Brian Gibson, is scheduled for an early 1993 release by Touchstone Pictures. Turner will act as a consultant on the film.

Free trade aids foreign countries

TO THE EDITOR:
Where is the news media when you need them? In the past I have applauded the media for exposing government corruption by investigating records which the general public couldn't find.

These men have served their country well.
Also, I have condemned the press for giving daily coverage, nationwide, to subjects which promote riots, child abuse, pornography, etc.

Currently, our local television stations do a wonderful job presenting public opinion polls on many subjects. They interview rich and poor, black and white, young and old, males and females.

It is uplifting to see that some of every group named knows the solution to our economic problems. But, these are all powerless to effect a change in policy.

What is needed to understand the situation, is first, to stand back and view the whole forest, so that individual trees (or interest groups) do not dominate the scene.

Then, secondly, to apply grade school mathematics to solve the problem.

This downward spiral all began with free world trade policies. I recall an interview on national television with a college sociology professor. He felt guilty about living so well while 90 percent of the world was in extreme poverty.

In order to help these people, give-away programs were initiated.

Billions of dollars were given to Korea for roads, seaports, airports, power plants, water plants, communication systems and raw materials.

When the United States businessmen, who initiated this plan, imported their products, the nation was shocked. This was because they sold for 15 percent less than American companies.

Everyone was condemning the American worker because he couldn't produce anything this economically — and, cheaply, I might add.

But, no one was pouring billions of dollars into his company, as billions of dollars of his taxes were being poured into Korea — to eliminate his job.

I was in Korea for a year, in 1962, before the "great give-away." They couldn't produce anything, much less make it economically.

After many years, the news of how much money they were "saving" us got back to them, and so, they wanted a raise.

The American businessmen picked up and went to Taiwan, after the give-away process had built up their country, and then, China — and then, Mexico, Argentina, Spain, Britain and Canada. Why were Britain and Canada qualified for Third World give-away status?

Now we have pretty thoroughly purged all the manual labor jobs from our one-plant nation, and with the jobs, our nation's tax base.

These were the people paying the taxes. So now, no jobs and no taxes.

How strange that all candidates for office pledge allegiance to free (?) world trade. What's about it? The fact that they pay all of their expenses? And, the candidates pledge opposition to protective tariffs.

Then, we have the dictatorial powers of the president — unequalled in our history.

Five-hundred thousand dollars to Poland — to start with. Two billion dollars to the Soviet Republic — which doesn't exist. Who gets all of this money? This is emphasized. — Just to get them through the winter.

Five-hundred and fifty million dollars to witnesses to convict Noriega. It is unconstitutional to pay a witness unless he is an expert witness: doctor, psychiatrist, psychologist, forensic lab technician.

Lately, an agreement to send the few remaining manual labor jobs to Mexico.

And in an election year, too. They are insulting your intelligence, brother. And, in this agreement, a stipulation to remove import tariffs for products, so that all avenues for revenue are cut off.

Now, I ask again: Where is the news media when you need them?

Candidate for trustee praised

TO THE EDITOR:
With all the issues and candidates on the general election ballot, many voters tend to ignore some important offices such as trustees for the University of Illinois. The national campaigns and some local races capture the spotlight.

A CHANGE TO MORE TAXATION, MORE REGULATION, AND MORE FEDERAL SPENDING!

Environmental tobacco smoke harms children, non-smokers

The following is by the American Lung Association:

The draft risk-assessment released during the summer by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency concludes that environmental tobacco smoke (ETS) can cause lung cancer in non-smoking adults, increases the risk of respiratory infection in children and exacerbates symptoms in children with asthma.

The EPA's conclusions are the final nails in the tobacco coffin. For the first time, the American people have a solid reason to remove ETS from the places where they spend most of their time. For adults, that means the workplace. For children, that means day-care centers and schools.

The American Lung Association of Illinois is especially concerned about the effect of ETS on children," said Lori Cole, program director.

Their lungs are still growing, making them particularly vulnerable to the harmful effects of ETS. When parents shop for day care for their young children, they should choose a smoke-free environment.

Teachers, principals, school boards and other educators must make certain that children are not exposed to ETS at school," Cole said.

Even though Illinois state law greatly restricts smoking in schools, ETS is still present in some locations. Given a choice, Americans don't want to breathe someone else's tobacco smoke either at work or in public places, such as restaurants.

A recent American Lung Association poll found that nine out of 10 Americans are aware of the health hazards of ETS and want to live, work and socialize in smoke-free environments.

The survey also found that eight in 10 smokers know that ETS is bad for people around them.

The final EPA report, to be published later this year, will be a powerful tool for public health advocates, policy makers and employers to use in meeting the public's demand for a smoke-free environment.

The American Lung Association is encouraging the EPA's Scientific Advisory Board to complete its review and approval of the risk assessment as soon as possible.

The American people are ready for their government to formally acknowledge the health risks of environmental tobacco smoke so that we can move ahead to the next important step — smoke-free public places and workplaces.

ETICAM-GRANITE, INC., GRANITE CITY IEPA/USEPA FINAL DECISION NOTICE

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency provides notice pursuant to 35 Ill. Adm. Code 705.201 (c), that a final RCRA/HSWA hazardous waste permit was issued to ETICAM-Granite Inc., Granite City, IL, on September 30, 1992.

The applicant may petition the Illinois Pollution Control Board to contest this permit decision pursuant to 35 Ill. Adm. Code 705.212. Provisions of the U.S. EPA permit decision may be appealed to the Administrator in Washington, D.C. pursuant to 40 CFR 124.19.

The deadline to appeal the IEPA permit decision is November 4, 1992. The deadline to appeal the U.S. EPA permit decision is October 30, 1992.

THE VOICE BOX:

What do the Cardinals have to do to improve the team for next season?

By T.V. MILLER

Robert French, Granite City
"They could use better pitching, but it seems like a lot of luck is involved with who wins or loses. I thought they played pretty decently this season."

Dean Wood, Granite City
"Win more games and get somebody that can hit the ball. I think if they would shell out some more money they could get some players that can hit."

David Fields, Granite City
"Get rid of (General Manager) Dal' Maxvill and get better pitchers. They also need a slugger."

Dan Whiteside, Granite City
"Get Whitey (Herzog) back."

Brian Johnson, Granite City
"I think they need to get somebody with power. That's their weakness. They already have speed and pitching."

Local musician named to Hall of Fame

Granite City musician Walter Vunovic was recently selected for induction into the Tamburitzan Hall of Fame.

His selection by a panel of judges from the Executive Committee of the Tamburitzan Association of America was announced in a recent issue of Tamburitzan Times.

Several hundred nominations are received and reviewed by the committee each year, and their selection is based on several criteria, including the individual's contribution to the tamburitzan field of music, length of time as a musician, support of the organization and encouragement of the younger generation to become involved.

There are about 45 musicians in the Hall of Fame and two or three are added each year.

Vunovic began playing the tamburitzan style of music at an early age, following in the footsteps of his three older brothers, John, Mike and Jim. This type of music is played on stringed instruments, such as the prom, bugarija, bass, cello and braci.

In 1980, he formed his own group, the Royal Tamburitzans, which included his brothers Mike and Jim. Until its dissolution 30 years later, the group enjoyed much success, recorded six albums, and drew large audiences at many appearances, including a three-week musical tour of Yugoslavia.

Walter Vunovic

For seven years, the Royals played weekly at the Sportsman's Club in Madison.

In July 1975, the band accepted an invitation from the government to travel to Washington, D.C., to participate in the annual Festival of American Folklore, sponsored by the Smithsonian Institute and the National Park Service.

The group's recording of "Sue Li Ju Plave Oci" sold thousands of copies and was one of the group's most successful arrangements. This is a Croatian interpretation of "Blue Eyes Crying in the Rain."

A new group, the "Novi Royals," was formed by Vunovic in 1985.

3 percent of state HIV tests positive

Since late 1985, more than 100,000 persons in Illinois have used state-funded counseling and testing sites to be screened for HIV (human immunodeficiency virus), Dr. John R. Lumpkin, state health director, has reported.

Of the 101,362 tested, 3,055 or 3 percent were positive with HIV antibodies.

The first 50,000 clients were tested in a little more than six years, while the second 50,000 were served in less than 18 months.

More than 45,000 persons received counseling and testing services in 1991, and 18,029 were tested in the first half of 1992.

The increasing number of those seeking testing for HIV confirms our belief that more and more people are taking the threat of HIV and AIDS (acquired immune deficiency syndrome) seriously," Dr. Lumpkin said.

However, despite this progress, we believe that many of those who are HIV positive are unaware of their infection and may unknowingly be spreading this deadly disease.

"We must continue to encourage people who may be at risk of HIV infection, whether it is through unprotected sex or sharing drug needles, to be tested for HIV."

Dr. Lumpkin urged all individuals who have engaged in behavioral choices that may have placed them at risk of HIV infection to seek counseling and testing at one of the department's 54 anonymous sites or to contact their private physician for assistance.

To locate the nearest state-funded counseling and testing site, persons can call the Department's toll-free AIDS hotline, 1-800-AIDS-AIDS, or TDD 1-800-782-0423.

HIV counseling and testing is also offered on a confidential basis to persons whose behavior may place them at risk of HIV infection at sexually-transmitted-disease clinics statewide and some substance abuse, family planning, prenatal and tuberculosis clinics.

In Illinois, 7,450 AIDS cases have been recorded since 1981. Since 1988, when reporting of HIV infection was mandated, 9,162 persons have been reported as HIV positive.

More than 4,900 of the AIDS cases reported male homosexual or bisexual contact.

Pamphlets on amendments being mailed

Voters in Illinois should begin receiving pamphlets describing the proposed "Education" and "Crime Victim's Rights" amendments to the Illinois Constitution, Secretary of State George H. Ryan announced.

The amendments were placed on the ballot by action of the Illinois General Assembly last spring. Ryan's office is required by law to mail the pamphlets to each of 4.8-million households in Illinois.

Printed on blue, recycled paper, the 12-page brochures include current constitutional language, the proposed language that will be on the ballot, and the effective date for each amendment, if ratified by the voters.

The mailings also contain brief arguments for and against each amendment, as drafted by legislative supporters and opponents.

The mailings will include, for the first time, deadlines and guidelines for voter registration prior to the Nov. 3 general election.

"We've made an attempt, at no additional cost to the state, to encourage voters to register and exercise their rights to vote on some very important issues," said Ryan. "I am happy to help people become more informed about these issues, because the American system only works when everyday citizens do their part."

Although the required mailing is expensive, Ryan said his office took advantage of every possible postal discount in designing the bids.

Local rep graduates from special training

Brett Champion, special representative for the Franklin Life Insurance Co., has graduated from the company's career orientation seminar. Tom Byerly, senior vice president of marketing, announced.

Brett is one of the talented rising stars in our sales organization whom we invited to our headquarters in Springfield, Ill., to learn more about the Franklin's products, marketing strategy, and home office administration," Byerly said.

An invitation to the seminar is an honor reserved for the company's leading new associates who've distinguished themselves in sales and recruiting."

Champion is a 1973 graduate of Granite City High School and lives in Fenton, Mo., with his wife, Diane, and three children. He is affiliated with the Bill H. Terrell Agency in Granite City.

Champion serves as a trustee of the Phi Sigma Kappa Foundation, a national education foundation supporting leadership development in college students. Champion is also the director of the Midwest Baseball Clinic, an instructional clinic for baseball coaches.

Watson receives award from small business group

Illinois Sen. Frank C. Watson, who represents the 55th District, received the prestigious "Guardian of Small Business" award from the National Federation of Independent Business/Illinois, on Sept. 16.

Watson, a Carlyle pharmacist and NFIB member himself, was cited for his strong support of small business during the 1991-92 legislative session, with a 100-percent voting record on seven key issues.

Watson was presented with the honor by John R. Davis, state director of NFIB/Illinois, at a state legislative breakfast sponsored by NFIB and the Independent Contractors of Illinois at the Country Harvest Restaurant in Centralia.

"From his perspective as both a small business operator and a legislator, Frank Watson has been a vocal, articulate and consistent exponent of the views of NFIB's 19,000 Illinois members," Davis said. "He has certainly demonstrated that he understands what is on the minds of the state's small business community."

"Small business owners who sell products and services to the state of Illinois are especially appreciative of Sen. Watson's sponsorship of 'prompt pay' legislation," Davis continued. "Delayed payment by the state has put many small businesses in financial jeopardy."

Watson served as a state representative from 1979 to 1983, before being elected to the Senate. His committee memberships include Appropriations II; Agriculture and Conservation; Revenue, and Elementary and Secondary Education.

Davis named to square dance board

At the September 13 Greater St. Louis Folk and Square Dance Federation meeting at the St. Ann Community Center in St. Ann, Mo., Harold Davis of Granite City was elected to a two-year term as a member of the board of directors of the federation.

The federation promotes square and round dancing in the St. Louis and Metro-East area. It has about 3,000 members.

Square dance lessons are now starting in the area and if anyone is interested in taking lessons, they may call Harold Davis at 931-6219.

Cougar Cards for honor-roll students

The Gold Cougar Card, a pass enabling area high school honor-roll students to attend cultural, athletic and entertainment events on the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville campus, at student admission rates, will be available again this year.

All events for which the Gold Cougar Card may be used include programs in the Arts & Issues series.

The card entitles its bearer to attend programs at the student rate of $2.

The series this year features Ellen Goodman, Jonathan Kozol and Irving R. Levine, performances like the Stand Rock Indian Ceremonial Theater Fantastique, the Seattle Repertory Theater, and a special presentation of the Broadway comedy, "Lend Me A Tenor."

The Gold Cougar Card may also be used to attend university theater productions, and most athletic events at SIUE student rates, including soccer and basketball games and track and field events.

The university initiated the card as a means of recognizing outstanding academic achievements among high school students.

The card is available to honor-roll students at more than 200 high schools within a 75-mile radius of the campus. Students may obtain application forms from their high school principals.

Absolutely, we're in our eighth year. We've moved to a new office. We offer business computing sales and support • computer cash register systems • credit card services. Please come to our OPEN HOUSE on Wednesday, October 7, 1992 from 3-6 p.m.

OH MY ACHING CORNS!

A phrase so commonly used by those suffering needlessly from painful corns. Although trimming them affords temporary relief, within 1-2 months regrowth of the corn occurs along with the pain and discomfort. The recurrence is due to the underlying calcium deposit causing excessive pressure which the skin responds by building up corn tissue. In almost all instances the corn can be permanently removed by an in-office procedure requiring little or no time off work. There is no need to suffer any longer. Consult the physicians and surgeons at the FOOT HEALTH CENTERS.

Trail

rule," Motil said. "Bicyclists will realize it isn't a bike trail over time."

The entire trail has only been finished for five days," she said. "People were using the trail as soon as it opened. We need to give it some time."

"People I've talked to say that bicycling is as much fitness as walking and jogging."

If the rule could be adopted and enforced, the board would be able to come up with a punishment to fit the crime of riding a bike on the trail. That's something that hasn't been decided.

"We have two choices," Sykes said. "We can ask them to remove their bike from the trail or we can get a city ordinance stopping people and go from there."

"We just don't have the people or the money to do that," Loman said. "You can't control the whole park like that."

The board's action on the approved two purchases, including a garden tractor that will have an attachment used to keep tree limbs off the trail. The tractor will also be used in other general park grounds maintenance. The purchase will be made by using leftover money from the dump truck fund.

Stearns Park, located at Athens and Franklin avenues, will get a new fence. It will be 42 inches high all the way around, except for the basketball court, which will have an eight-foot fence. It will cost the district $3,360 for the project.

Workers

"Now, the worker is totally dependent on the minority, the capitalists," and, at the mercy of the minority.

"And everything the worker has is at the mercy of the minority," Haywood said. "So, when you say, 'You have nothing to lose but your chains,' nothing is literally nothing."

No matter how imperfect today's labor union are, Haywood said, they are the only organization the working class has to look out for its interests.

She has been very active in organizing members of her union for solidarity demonstrations for striking workers across the country.

She has put together solidarity groups to support United Airlines workers, Caterpillar workers, the Illinois mine workers and, most recently, the workers at Dux Run in Herculaneum.

"Unions should represent and be fighting for the rights of all workers, not just the workers at this plant or in this trade or this industry," she said.

"The unions must be prepared to be the soup kitchens, the clothing providers, the place all workers can go for help."

"The unions should be fighting for every member of the working class, not just in America, but everywhere in the world."

Radicalization of American labor unions has long been the goal of the American socialist movement, but Haywood said that is one reason the Socialist Workers broke away from the American Socialist Party.

"The country is on the verge of a major depression and, as times get tougher, people will start looking for radical solutions," she said.

"The working class is being radicalized by the failure of the system to provide for their basic needs," she said.

"The unions must be the place all workers, not just the workers in our industry, or even just the workers in our country."

Haywood said she believes workers are beginning to understand that the plight of the working class is an international plight, something she said capitalists have known for a long time.

Haywood said the idea of American jobs and American ## products is a ploy to pit workers

against workers.

"I work for a Japanese company, and I would love to have for wanting the Japanese workers to suffer."

"The only reason to want American workers to hate workers is Japan is to divide the working class and give the capitalist corporations a hook for the workers' problems," she said.

"The concept of scapegoats and pointing fingers is the basis of capitalism," Haywood said. "She sees as the only future for the world unless workers bind themselves together for the good of the working class."

"People seeking radical solutions, wanting to listen to the radicals, are David Dukes and Ross Perot of the world," she said.

At first, they may sound good. Only if you look farther do you see it is just another minority that will oppress the working class. That's why, this is just another millionaire who wants control over us."

Haywood said racism, inequality, injustice, military aggression and poverty are all things that capitalists can and do use to pit worker against worker.

"Wars such as the war in Iraq, which is only a fight for the economic interests of capitalists, economic interests paid for with the blood of the working class. For that reason, she said, the working class must join together and oppose them."

"We can't afford to remain quiet," she said. "We can't just ignore the problems and hope they'll go away."

"We must speak out against these things so that people will know there is an alternative that by banding together the working class can control its interests."

"If it joins together, the working class of the world can take control of the political organization and then take control of its destiny by destroying the capitalist minority," Haywood said.

"We must start looking at things, not in terms of individual interest, but in terms of the interests of all workers. When we do that, we are all better off," she said.

"A United Airlines worker told me, 'I don't want a "me" person, but since the strike I have become a "we" person. That's the kind of attitude we must develop.'"

Better Breathers journey to Grant's Farm; couple celebrates anniversary

Maxine Green covers the Granite City and Nameki Township area for the Press-Record Journal. She can be contacted at 931-0256.

On Sept. 17 the Better Breathers can't pool to Grant's Farm. It was a beautiful and invigorating day and everyone had a great time. After refreshments and a little relaxation, the group toured the grounds, had a late lunch together and journeyed home. Participating in the adventure were Frank and Shirley Wendel, Jack and Ruth Smith, Orval Temmer, Ellen Knachstedt, Dottie Martin, Jim Noe, Pearl Kamadulski, Susie Horvath, Paula Gonterman and Carol Smith, coordinator.

Lloyd Dilline has returned to his home in North Glen, Colo., after visiting his brother-in-law and his wife, Emerald and Irene Daves. He also visited his son, Roy Dilline, in Wood River.

Charles and Evelyn Bringer have returned home after completing a Presley "Big Apple and D.C. Breakaway" Tour, with 40 other passengers from Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. It included sites in eight states and District of Columbia. Highlights of the tour were visits to Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island, Empire State Building, White House, Capitol and many others. The most impressive was the "Changing of the Guard" at the "Tomb of the Unknown Soldier." Mr. and Mrs. Bringer said, "Everyone should see all this and it would really make you proud of being an American."

Preston and Lucky Adams celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 30 at Ravello's restaurant with a dinner party given by their family. A cake was served and gifts presented. Present were the guests of honor, their daughter and son-in-law, Jackie and Mike Mink of Hazelwood, their daughter and son-in-law, Brenda and Larry York, and son Craig York of Granite City and grandson, Michael York and wife, Lisa, and daughter, Jessica of O'Fallon. Mr. and Mrs. Adams were married Sept. 15, 1942, in Charleston, Mo., and have resided in Granite City and Madison since 1960. A daytime and evening meeting was held on Sept. 24 in the Avon office at 2023 Edison, with District Manager Phyllis Laster in charge. She opened the meetings by informing everyone that District 109 came in first in sales in the entire Gateway Division; she also welcomed all new representatives. Franchise "Mesmerize" was then presented and received an overwhelming response. The names of all representatives who committed to selling three bottles were put in a drawing and 25 people won cologne and new jewelry items. Four representatives won U.S. Savings Bonds for increases in sales and recruits, including Florence Michaelson, Shelly Kibler, Donna Williams and Cora Nance.

Several Mrs. Albee awards were presented to those reaching the President's Club sales goal. All new Christmas items were on display. Mrs. Laster closed the meeting reminding all President Club members of the Luncheon to be held at the Holiday Ill in Collinsville at 11 a.m. on Nov. 4, and the Honor Society luncheon will be at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 16 (same location). She also reminded them Campaign 24 meeting will be at 11 a.m. or 7 p.m. on Oct. 22.

Representatives attending were Winnie Pointer, Dorothy Alsop, Mae Davis, Bonnie Bridges (guest), Rosa Lux, Elaine Slaton, Eleanor White, Marie

Warriors impressive despite 33-0 loss to ESL

By Dave Whaley
Staff writer

Though beaten, not disgraced. Although the actual score was the most one-sided of the year for the Warrior football team Friday, head coach Don Harris and his team could feel very good. The East St. Louis Flyers had little trouble in a 33-0 victory at Memorial Stadium. But Granite City could hold its heads high.

"We didn't back down from them at any time," said Harris. "If we had played this well in a couple games earlier, we would have a different record."

As it is, the Warriors are 1-4 overall and 1-2 in the Southwest Conference. The Flyers improved to 4-1 overall and 2-0 in the SWC. They are 4-0 on the field, with their only loss a forfeit due to a teachers strike. But 33-0 is the closest game East Side has had all year.

The No. 1 team in the area and the state (No. 8 in the nation) scored on all four possessions in the first half, but its offense was shut down in the second half. The Flyers only touched down after the intermission came on an 88-yard fumble recovery by Marcey Haywood.

"We're still experimenting with a lot of things," said East

Ron Fisher of the Warriors avoids the tackle of East St. Louis' Frank Spraggins on Friday at Memorial Stadium.

St. Louis coach Bob Shannon. "We're moving some people around and I hope we get everything settled by playoff time. But our defense is showing signs of becoming real good."

It was the Flyers' first shutout of the season, but they by no means shut down the Warriors completely. Granite City picked up eight first downs and junior running back Ron Fisher had 101 yards on 29 carries. The Flyers only outgained the Warriors he was wanting to get back in there. And he was in there giving his all on defense.

The Flyers were clearly in control from the beginning, but at no point did it appear they would run up a huge score. Haywood (nine carries for 103 yards) returned the opening kickoff 45 yards, then the Flyers went 39 yards in seven plays. (See FOOTBALL, Page 6B)

HAVING AN ACCIDENT IS BAD ENOUGH.
DON'T LET ANOTHER ONE HAPPEN IN THE BODY SHOP.
When you get bodywork done on your GM car or truck, you might assume that genuine GM parts will be used. Not so. Many second-rate imitations are available on the market. And some insurance companies won't cover repairs if you use them. Many imitations don't meet GM's strict standards for fit & finish, corrosion resistance or structural strength that can mean serious problems down the road. Insist on seeing your repair order and specify genuine GM sheet metal parts. That's all we use. And it's never overpriced. Because you're built by the same people who built your GM vehicle. And it's backed by a Limited Lifetime Warranty.

Stats notes

The Journals are asking all Football, Soccer and Volleyball Coaches to send or fax cumulative statistics or a list of top performers to our regional office.

Stats can be mailed to the South County Journal, 4210 Chippewa, St. Louis, Mo., 63116, by Wednesday of each week. The fax number is (314) 664-9777. Faxes must also be received by Wednesday each week. Stats should be sent to the attention of Toby Carrig.

Your cooperation is needed, otherwise stats from your teams will not appear.

Coaches who have any questions should call Dave Whaley at (618) 876-2000. Also for local recreational leagues, scores must be turned in no later than noon Tuesday for inclusion in the following Sunday edition.

'Recruiter's paradise' back for 12th year

By Dave Whaley
Staff writer

Gene Baker certainly has lots to be proud of during a long career of coaching high school soccer.

All the state titles, to go with countless regional and sectional championships, are great. But don't be so sure those are his proudest accomplishments.

It just might be the Tournament of Champions.

The Granite City High School/Pepsi/Lotto Tournament of Champions gets going for the 12th straight year Monday with the first five of what will be 28 games by the end of the day Saturday. Baker, and many others, in Granite City tout the event as the premier high school soccer

Warriors blast East

Goals had been hard to come by recently for the Warrior soccer team. Not Thursday.

Granite City improved to 8-3 overall and 3-0 in the Southwestern Conference with an 8-0 win over Belleville East at the Gauntlet on Thursday.

Tuning up for the Tournament of Champions, senior Jason Maxfield opened the scoring with his first goal of the season just a minute into the game, and the onslaught was on. Paulie Bucher, Shawn Petroski, Sean Lakatos, Corey Little all scored before Swedish Lonsider student Ola Sternerberg scored the final two goals.

Little added two assists, with other assists going to John Nizinski, David Sternerberg, Partney, Maxfield, Ben Hicks, Lakatos and J.B. Anderson. David Kasproovich and Mike Bristol shared the shutout.

The Warriors led 1-0 in the first half and 1-0 overall. The Warriors are unbeaten in 32 consecutive games.

tournament in the company, and it's hard to argue.

"I would compare it to the (Coca-Cola/KMOX) Shootout in basketball," said Baker. "It's just a recruiter's paradise. All the best teams and practically all of the top players in the St. Louis area are here. We usually have around 40 colleges represented at the games."

And there's a lot to see. Seven of the 10 ranked teams in the Journal poll are in this year's field, and 10 of the top 13. Each of the top four teams will be here, and three of them will be in one pool - No. 1 Vianney, No. 2 Rosary and No. 3 CBC along with O'Fallon.

"It's happened that way before," said Baker. "The team that makes it out of that bracket will really deserve it. And O'Fallon is the kind of team which could change things around there."

All the brackets are good. Vianney has won it three times and has to be the favorite again. But the favorite coming in in the past often has not done well."

Normally, Vianney, the defending champion and unbeaten this year, would be a solid favorite to advance to Saturday's semifinals. But the tough bracket could play a factor. Group A - Chicago Brother Rice, Aquinas/Mer-

The Field

The following is a brief look at each team competing in the Granite City Tournament of Champions this week:

Group A

Chicago Brother Rice - The Crusaders are 9-0 this season after going 9-0-2 a year ago and advancing to the Illinois state tournament, where they lost 4-1 to eventual state champion Collinsville. Coached by 22-year veteran Nick Markun, Brother Rice is led by junior Billy Savarino, who scored more than 40 goals last year. This is their second year in the tournament.

Aquinas/Mercy - The Falcons were 7-1 heading into Saturday's game with CBC on Saturday. The Falcons lost its first two games of the season and tied their third game in the tournament, a string of six wins in seven games, including five shutouts.

St. Mary's - The Golden Griffins have won the Tournament of Champions three times. Including last year - and are favorites to make it four and become the first team to win it back-to-back. Mike Villa's team is 11-0-1 this year, ranked first in the Journal poll and riding a 17-game unbeaten streak. They are the defending co-champions in Missouri and have won six state titles. Leading the way are Mark Tracy, Brad Snyder, Jeff Mercus, Jeff Venzler and Cliff Pallete.

McCluer North - The Stars, coached by Ray Spill, were 9-3-1 as of Thursday. They won the Tournament of Champions in 1983. The Stars have beaten Rosary, Aquinas/Mercy, Goltschmidt, and a combined team at the beginning of the season, but Fairview, Hayden and Clay Center have split the dates, and are playing well. Brian Hoerner has five goals at the beginning of the week to lead the team.

SLUH - The Junior Bulls are 4-1-1 and ranked eighth in the Journal poll. But the record is often deceiving because SLUH has played only three games in the area. Two years ago they were barely above .500 in regular season and won their second state title. Coach Eddie Dunn is a legend, holding the national record for most victories at a high school. Best players include defender Scott Standley and forward Yanning. They won the Tournament of Champions in 1986 and 1989.

Group B

Granite City - The Warriors are 7-3-3 and ranked seventh in the Journal poll. Granite City is in its 20th season at GCIS and has won nine state titles and well over 400 games. At Granite City South they won the tournament in 1980, and won it again as GCIS in 1991. Senior Brent Doppel scored four goals in three games, setting the record for most goals in a season, but now is probably lost for the rest of the year with a broken foot. Senior Ben Hicks has four goals, while senior J.B. Anderson and junior Jamie Bridges have three each. Senior Jason Maxfield is also among the top players in the area. Coach Clag David Kasproovich and Mike Bristol have all scored in goal and Granite City has seven shutouts.

Chaminade - A team on the rise, the Flyers finished 14-1-1 last season and are 4-0 this year. Coach Mike Gaudin is one of the most respected in the area. Top players include Sam Hillmer, Ron Backstage and Sage McCuller. McCuller has made the all-tournament team in each of the last two years.

Francis Howell North - The Knights are each of the four years of the school's existence. Coached by Vince Nowak, the Knights are led by one of the area's most exciting players in senior Mike Slivinski (right goals this year). Slivinski has moved up in age group to play on national teams.

Oakville - With a record of 7-6, Oakville

Group C

O'Fallon - The Panthers are 10-2, and ranked third in the Journal poll. A 2-1 loss to Macoupin on Tuesday last year was their first loss in the tournament, and an Avondale's team was surprised by beating SLUH and tying Hazelwood Central. Senior Jason Turkington has nine goals and six assists, and might see action as stopper during tournament. He is the only returning starter.

Vianney - The Golden Griffins have won the Tournament of Champions three times. Including last year - and are favorites to make it four and become the first team to win it back-to-back. Mike Villa's team is 11-0-1 this year, ranked first in the Journal poll and riding a 17-game unbeaten streak. They are the defending co-champions in Missouri and have won six state titles. Leading the way are Mark Tracy, Brad Snyder, Jeff Mercus, Jeff Venzler and Cliff Pallete.

McCluer North - The Stars, coached by Ray Spill, were 9-3-1 as of Thursday. They won the Tournament of Champions in 1983. The Stars have beaten Rosary, Aquinas/Mercy, Goltschmidt, and a combined team at the beginning of the season, but Fairview, Hayden and Clay Center have split the dates, and are playing well. Best players include defender Scott Standley and forward Yanning. They won the Tournament of Champions in 1986 and 1989.

Group D

DeMet - The Spartans are ranked fourth with a 6-3-1 record. They shared the All-Star large school state with Vianney in 1991. Led by Harry Weiss and Matt McKenna. The best player for Greg Villa's team this year is Craig Corbett. DeMet won the Tournament of Champions in 1985.

Hazelwood East - The Spartans were 5-1-1 heading into a game with O'Fallon on Thursday. The Spartans started quickly, defeating McCluer North in its opener. The best player of the suburban North Conference Tournament, Craig Kellou, led the scoring with eight goals. Bill Pappin has seven goals and Andy Sautter has three. Gailie Jason Glover has two shutouts.

St. Mary's - They took a 9-3-1 record into Friday's game against Lutheran South. St. Mary's is a newcomer to the tournament. They were led by forward Dan Schuler (12 goals) and Scott Semmens (7). Goals: Marco Hernandez has four shutouts.

Hazelwood Central - The Hawks were 6-2-2 heading into Thursday's game with Vianney. The Hawks, coached by Dan Schuler, registered impressive wins over McCluer North and St. Mary's in its opener. Coached by Dan Schuler, the Hawks have been led offensively by Bobby Brown with eight goals and five assists. Jeff Seery has six assists. Goals: Brock Rutherford has four shutouts.

Group E

DeMet - The Spartans are ranked fourth with a 6-3-1 record. They shared the All-Star large school state with Vianney in 1991. Led by Harry Weiss and Matt McKenna. The best player for Greg Villa's team this year is Craig Corbett. DeMet won the Tournament of Champions in 1985.

Trojans finally score, but lose

By Brian Henry
Correspondent

The Trojans have been a decent first-quarter team, and proved it again Friday. It's the other three quarters Madison needs to work on.

The Dupo Tigers, who trailed 9-7, routed back and wore down the undermanned Trojans 50-14 at Sam Dymas Memorial Field. Dupo (3-2) won its third in a row. Madison fell to 0-4, but scored its first points of the year. The Trojans had only 16 players dress and they may have lost their top running back, James Wellmaker.

Wellmaker hurt his knee when a teammate collided with him on a PAT attempt. He was wearing a knee brace after the game and his status is questionable.

Dupo wasted little time in taking the lead. They scored at 1:49 when Brandon Portell ran for the first of his four touchdowns. Portell scored all of his "TDs" in the first half, carrying the ball 19 times for 151 yards.

The Trojans came right back to take the lead. Madison went 64 yards in 10 plays and senior quarterback Orlando Porter snuck in from a yard out for the touchdown with 5:25 to play in the first quarter. Porter passed to Wellmaker for a two-point conversion and Madison's first lead of the season.

"That's what we were able to do last year later in the season," said Trojan coach Mark Jiles. "After we did it this time, though, we started making stupid mistakes."

The Trojan advantage was short-lived as Portell scored again on a 5-yard run with 2:45 to play in the quarter. Dupo nev-looked back as Portell scored twice more and Jeremy Bayer added a touchdown run for a 31-9 Tiger lead at the half.

Although Dupo ran the ball 44 times, sophomore quarterback Schooner Fitzgerald was impressive, completing six of eight passes for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

The Trojans finished with 157 yards, their highest output of the season. Dupo held Madison to 95 yards in the second half — 66 of that total coming on a desperation pass to Emil Allen for a touchdown on the last play of the game — and was able to run the ball at will on offense.

"I feel that we're competitive," said Jiles.

with senior quarterback Ben Williams (3 for 10, 38 yards) passing 10 yards in the left corner to a wide-open Richard Jenkins after only 3:27. The extra point was no good.

East Side then went 71 yards in five plays, with junior Woody Gray covering the final 28 yards. The extra point hit the goal post. Gray ran 46 yards on the first play of the second quarter, then made the extra point to make it 19-0. The Flyers then went 80 yards in eight plays, including a 29-yard run by Haywood and a six-yard touchdown run 4:43 before halftime.

But the Warriors slowed things down in the second half, running 29 plays to only 13 for the Flyers.

"I know they were using a lot of different guys at different positions in the second half, but I don't think we did that badly in the first half," said Harris. "We really only made two big mistakes the whole night. Of course against that team, those will hurt you."

The first mistake was having 12 men on the field on a Flyer punt that kept a drive alive leading to Haywood's touchdown. The second mistake came after the Flyers handed the Warriors a first down at the East Side 21 late in the third quarter. The snap went over the punter's head and Granite City was in business.

The Warriors had fourth and goal at the 6, but Fisher was nailed for no gain. The ball popped loose on his way down, and Haywood was there to pick it up and go 30 yards for the only score of the second half.

"I'm pretty impressed with Granite City," said Shannon. "They are real young, but they will be good. They're rebuilding like we are. The key is to rebuild with a minimum of adversity."

Adversity might be on the wane for the Warriors. More efforts like this one against mere mortal teams could produce some fun. Senior running back Jeff Luffman was out with an injury, but Fisher filled in well. Sophomore quarterback Pat Curry came out with a slight injury in the second half and sophomore Micky Walker filled in.

Clinton holds strong lead in state

SPRINGFIELD — Democrat Bill Clinton holds a strong lead in Illinois over President Bush, according to a new poll.

The poll released Wednesday by Sangamon State University in Springfield is based on 643 telephone interviews conducted at random between Sept. 3 and Sept. 7.

It gives Clinton a 52 percent lead over Bush, with 10 percent for Perot and 1 percent undecided, based on Perot's status as an inactive candidate according to the poll.

The Illinois residents were also asked how they would vote if it were the final election.

Clinton then picked up more than 10 percent over Perot backers, with a lead of about 54 percent over Bush.

Among older voters, the race was much tighter at 41 percent for Clinton to 38 percent for Bush.

Clinton also was ahead in every income group except those making less than $10,000 a year, where Bush led 41 percent to 39 percent.

The poll also indicated Clinton was doing much more support from voters who identified themselves with the opposition party than with Bush.

Clinton drew 13 percent of the Republican vote while Bush only mustered 5 percent of the Democratic vote, the poll says.

Clinton's choice for a running mate, Sen. Al Gore of Tennessee, was also apparently popular with Illinois voters, since 60 percent of those saying they would vote for Clinton said the vice presidential candidate influenced their choice.

In contrast, 70 percent of Bush supporters said the vice presidential candidate had no influence.

From the Alton Telegraph

On a geographical basis, Clinton was favored 69 percent to 18 percent over Bush in Chicago and 53 percent to 23 percent in Southern Illinois. In the rest of Downstate, Clinton's lead was 43 percent to 30 percent over the president, and in the Chicago suburbs he led 47 percent to 32 percent.

Clinton also led Bush in every age group contacted in the poll. He received up to 56 percent support among voters under 65.
